Company Description

PROVISOR is a trusted manufacturer of high-quality custom caps and T-shirts, serving brands, businesses, and events. We offer a wide range of styles, fabrics, and printing options to suit every need — from bulk orders to limited-edition designs. With a focus on quality, speed, and customer satisfaction, we turn your ideas into wearable reality.

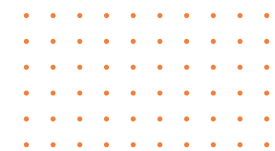

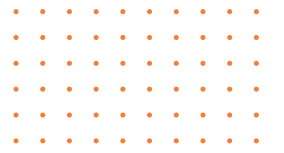

Crafting Excellence, One Product at a Time

Since 2002, we've been at the forefront of premium cap manufacturing, delivering high-quality headwear to vendors across industries. In 2023, we expanded our expertise to include T-shirts and personalized apparel, bringing the same level of craftsmanship to a broader product range.

With a passion for quality and an eye for innovation, we proudly offer products that combine style, comfort, and durability.

From embroidery to sublimation, DTF, and screen printing, our in-house capabilities ensure complete customization tailored to your needs. Whether you're an individual looking for standout apparel or a business seeking branded merchandise, our promise remains the same—delivering excellence with every stitch, print, and detail.

OUR HISTORY

Founded in 2002, Avika Apparels began with a passion for crafting high-quality caps and built a strong reputation over two decades.

In 2023, we expanded into T-shirts and custom apparel, offering services like embroidery, sublimation, DTF, and screen printing.

With a legacy of craftsmanship and a fresh approach to apparel customization, we deliver style, quality, and precision in every piece.

2002

We began our journey in 2002, specializing solely in cap manufacturing with a focus on quality and durability.

2012

We expanded by introducing in-house embroidery, investing in advanced machines to enhance customization.

2018

We added DTF and sublimation printing, along with importing premium quality caps to meet growing demand.

2023

We stepped into T-shirt manufacturing, offering full-range sublimation and printing services across all fabric types.

OUR FACILITIES

Cap Manufacturing

We are a mass manufacturer of high-quality caps, delivering large volumes with precision, consistency, and custom design options. With advanced machinery and skilled staff, we ensure reliable supply and competitive pricing for brands and businesses.

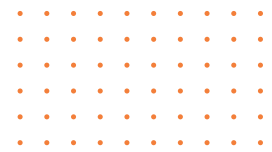

Embroidery

We offer professional embroidery services with high-speed, precision machines for sharp, durable stitching on caps, T-shirts, and more. Ideal for logos and custom designs, our in-house setup ensures quality control, fast turnaround, and bulk order efficiency.
